Village Ram Roast and Duck Race

This annual event will take place this year on Saturday 28th July.

The Ram Roast begins about 5pm followed by the Duck Race at about 8pm.

Please come and support us.

Everyone is a volunteer

All Proceeds go to

All Saints Church

Thankful Villages Motorcycle Run

The riders, who are raising money for the Royal British Legion, will be in Herodsfoot on Monday 29th July between approximately 10.30am and 11.15am. Depending on the number of riders, there may be some congestion down Church Hill and into the village – please be prepared for this possibility on the 29th and plan journeys accordingly. A film crew will be in attendance and Sherryll Murray MP will be here to receive a commemorative plaque on behalf of the village. You are invited to show your support on the day – Herodsfoot is proud to be the only Thankful Village in Cornwall. More details of the ride can be found at www.thankfulvillagesrun.com (Jackie 01579 320147, jackie@herodsfoot-webworks.co.uk)

Food Bank

Invitation to Open Days at new Foodbank Centre

Everyone welcome to visit Liskeard and Looe Foodbank to celebrate their move to new premises at Unit 1, Barras Place, Liskeard on Friday 5th or Saturday 6th July, 10am to 1pm. Since last October, villagers of Herodsfoot have donated a total of 214 items of food. Thank you to all who continue to support this work helping local families in crisis; there is a donation box in the Church where non-perishable, in-date food items can be left.

Congratulations to Major Simon Gough Who was awarded an MBE in the Queens Birthday Honours List

Coffee Morning

Our thanks go to Nigel and Jane at the Old Vicarage for inviting everyone to Coffee Morning on the 29th June. It was a lovely morning and well attended.

In July our coffee morning will be on the village green after the Royal British Legion Sponsored visit to Herodsfoot—the only Thankful Village in Cornwall..

This will be at the invitation of Anita and Veronica.
